Complete take-over of Electraplan Solutions

(Blieskastel, January 2009) Taking effect on the 01.01.2009, the Hager Group took over all shares of Electraplan Solutions GmbH, based in Schenefeld/Hamburg. Previously, the company had been run as a joint venture of equal shares by the Hager Group and the Niedax Group.

Nothing will change for customers and partners: contacts, customer service and individual advisory service remain.

Electraplan Solutions

Electraplan Solutions is a leading supplier of underfloor installation technology. As a specialist, Electraplan Solutions offers technically mature modular systems which perform various tasks such as power distribution, data transmission to the working place and the provision of local telephone extensions.

At the moment, Electraplan Solutions is the only manufacturer to offer a complete system meeting almost every challenge of electrical installations in buildings under construction or for measures of modernisation. Electraplan Solutions excels in close customer relations: in addition to the standard range of products, numerous individual solutions are crafted according to customers' request.
